

Tell Us Your Story

Terms and Conditions

Have you or one of your loved ones benefited from PAN's support? If you would you like to share your story to inspire others living with chronic, critical, and rare illnesses, please complete the Tell Us Your Story Form.

By clicking "I agree" you acknowledge to understand and agree to PAN Terms and Conditions statements below. If we publish your story on our website, we will use only your first name.

"I understand and agree that I will not be paid or reimbursed in any way for current or future likeness, words or ideas. I hereby relinquish and release any right to inspect or approve the finished product that may be used in connection therewith or the use to which it may be applied, and I consent to the use, distribution, and redistribution of my likeness, words or ideas by PAN, its employees and representatives, and third-parties without prior approval.

I hereby release and agree to indemnify and hold harmless the PAN Foundation, its employees, or representatives from any claims, lawsuits, injury and/or damages, actual or prospective, alleged or sustained by any person or entity as a result of statements made by me or information provided by me through the Tell Us Your Story Form, including but not limited to, claims for personal injury (including injury to reputation), property damage, invasion of privacy and/or breach of confidentiality.

I have read and understand this consent prior to clicking I agree."

All information that you provide will be used for informational or promotional use only.